Fidgety Fairy Tales 2 is a sequel to the very successful Fidgety Fairy Tales. The original production has already had over 40 performances throughout Minnesota and will be touring to Washington, DC this December. The new show reimagines familiar fairy tales to raise awareness about autism, post-traumatic stress, and explosive anger. Written and directed by Matt Jenson (Children's Theatre Company and University of Minnesota Dance Program Faculty), music and lyrics by Marya Hart (composer and Children's Theatre Company faculty), and sets and puppets by recent Ivey award-winner Chris Griffith.

Rehearsals - February 1 - March 25, 2009. Not everyone will be called for every rehearsal. A more detailed rehearsal schedule will be available after casting has been finalized.

Performances - March 26- May 1, 2009. Approximately 12 performances, mostly on evenings and weekends at various locations throughout the Twin Cities.

Compensation - Actors will be paid a performance stipend.
